

Judge – Corey Ackelmire

Corey Ackelmire earned her Bachelor of Fine Art degree in jewelry and metalsmithing from Missouri State University in 2003. She earned a Master of Fine Art in jewelry/metals/enameling from Kent State University in 2007. Corey has been an educator since 2005, is a published author, and has exhibited her work in numerous national and international exhibitions. As a metalsmith, she is interested in the ways people make, keep, alter, and use objects for emotional, superstitious, and practical purposes. Metal objects, from common currency to silver spoons, tend to be both durable and malleable, common and sacred, sentimental and mundane. Exploring their place in material culture is the focus of her work. Currently she is a full-time instructor and the Visual Art Program Coordinator at Houston Community College, in Houston, Texas.

Artists

Open to all artists over the age of 15, regardless of membership status.
