

Judge, Lynn Chatman

Lynn Chatman has always been on the move, living overseas and in the States. During these adventures and, while raising her family, she painted or engaged in some type of creative activity. Her formal art training includes classes at community colleges and studies with some wonderful artists, who continue to inspire her. Lynn taught art to adult beginners through Leisure Learning Unlimited in Houston, helping others to grow and find inspiration in themselves through art continues to be one of her greatest pleasures.

Lynn's work explores boundaries of abstract experimentation. She says, "Art is a journey, the road I travel will always be reflected in my work." She has painted in oils, pastels, gouache and currently is inspired by the versatility of acrylics.
