

Judge: Linda C. Dumas of Kingwood has worked and experimented in various media: oil paint, collage, pottery, mixed media, fluid acrylics on textured ground, and more. She has won numerous awards in regional contests, including back-to-back first-place awards in the professional abstract and experimental category of Lone Star Art Guild competitions. Dumas' work has been accepted for exhibit at Kingwood College, the Lake Jackson Center for the Arts and Sciences, the Texas Sculpture Association show, and more. Her experimental art earned a finalist award in The Artist's Magazine competition. Since 1998 Dumas has served as a judge for the Houston Rodeo and Livestock Show School Art Committee; in her fifth year, she was promoted to steering judge for that competition. To see examples of her work, visit her website, www.dumasarts.com.

Artist eligibility: Open to all artists 16 and older, regardless of Galveston Art League membership status.

Entries: Artists may enter up to 3 works in any medium. Because this is a juried show, your work might not be accepted. Entries do not have to be for sale, but artwork that is sold must remain at gallery for the entire exhibition.

All entered works must be:

1. Created in the last 4 years and not previously accepted into a juried show held by Galveston Art League.
2. Original work of the artist who physically integrates/manipulates every component of the original concept and design. Giclees are ineligible.
3. Installation-ready. 2-D works need to be (as applicable): matted, have finished edges, have a wired hanger (sawtooth hangers and hooks are not allowed), under glass, Plexiglas, or acrylic. Framed works larger than 24 inches in any direction (including frame) must use Plexiglas or acrylic – not glass. See other requirements at <https://galvestonartleague.com/exhibits/how-to-submit-work/>
4. 5 by 5 feet or smaller for 2-D works. Two people working together must be able to carry and hang the work easily.

Works not meeting above criteria and published schedule will not be exhibited, even if inadvertently accepted into show. If artists cannot pick up works as scheduled, they must make arrangements with Galveston Art League within a week of closing. Failure to do so will result in works becoming Art League property.

Entry Fees (these are non-refundable):

Members: $15 each for first 2 entries; $5 for third.

Nonmembers: $20 per work.
